Screening
Lady Los Angeles

By writer/director
Antonia Crane
Runtime: 15 min.

A young Latinx trans woman makes her rent in a story with no heroes and no victims. Lady Los Angeles illuminates the perspective and desires of one LA-based sex worker. This film reminds the world that sex workers through joy and solidarity save themselves—and each other every day.

Panel discussion w. Antonia Crane, Sydney Rogers aka Miss Barbie-Q and Jenn Elizabeth Moderated by Soma Snakeoil, founder of Sidewalk Project.

Screening Stop The Raids: Sex Workers Protest Hydee Feldstein Soto's Criminalization - Runtime: 5 min. – Q&A

On December 18th, 2023, a significant and powerful protest took place at Los Angeles City Hall. Organized by The Stop The Raids Coalition's LA and local sex worker groups, this event was a 'Die-In' demonstration to call attention to the policies of City Attorney Hydee Feldstein Soto.
